Arsene Wenger, Trezeguet, Ranocchia and Pirlo together in Rome for Peace

Players keep joining the great interreligious event, that will be held at the Olimpico Stadium on September 1st. Tickets are available starting from today on the Listicket network – TicketOne Group.

ROME (ITA), July 28th, 2014 – The list of the champions who will take the field for Peace at the Stadio Olimpico on September 1st, 2014 is getting more and more prestigious, thanks to the outstanding participation of Arsene Wenger, Gunners’ historic manager, unanimously considered one of the best trainers of all time. Among the players who will join in the match, there will be the French forward David Trezeguet as well as the new captain of the Internazionale, Andrea Ranocchia and Andrea Pirlo, Juventus midfielder and pillar of the National Italian Soccer Team. The International dream team, which will give life to the first Interreligious Match for Peace, is growing further, after the immediate confirmations of Lionel Messi, Gianluigi Buffon, Zinedine Zidane, Javier Zanetti, Roberto Baggio, Yuto Nagatomo and Samuel Eto’o…

The presence of other soccer stars will be made official in the next few days: for the first time, players and trainers, who are used to compete at the highest level, will be all together on the field, united by the common goal of representing sport’s highest values, such as respect, social cohesion and fraternity among peoples.

Meanwhile, pre-sale has started and the queue at the stores in Rome as well as the requests all over Italy have increased. An immediate and enthusiastic response that enhances the expectancy of the event!

You can buy your tickets in the Listicket stores – TicketOne Group – or online at www.listicket.com.
